SRSB Harri Holkeri's Message on the Occasion of Eid al-Fitr

PRISTINA – SRSB Harri Holkeri issued the following message on the occasion of Eid al-Fitr:

“The month of Ramadan that is just ending is a special period for practicing Muslims when fasting, prayer and holiday meals with family and friends bring a sense of social solidarity and personal peace.

“I congratulate all Muslims in Kosovo on the conclusion of the holy month of Ramadan and on the festive holiday of Fitr Bayram.

“On this day, I extend my warmest wishes for peace – peace in your hearts, peace in your families and peace within and among the communities that make up Kosovo's rich cultural mosaic.

“During this holiday season, I know your religious leaders will affirm that there is no greater act of piety you can express than to do your own part in honouring the right of every person in Kosovo to live in security and dignity.

“The month of Ramadan has ended. The challenge of ensuring that Kosovo lives up to the highest standards of the great faiths that have their homes here will continue tomorrow, next month, and next year.”
